

AT A GLANCE | 2022

Through a survey, Big Table participants shared their ideas, stories, and suggestions.

Here is a snapshot of what they told us!

PARTICIPANTS REPRESENTING

UNIQUE ZIP CODES

92%

said they met at least one person with a different background or perspective from their own.

94%

said ideas or issues were discussed that led to a deeper understanding of community needs, opportunities, or strengths.

96%

were satisfied with their Big Table conversation.

98%

said they were likely to participate again.

“We are going to continue meeting!”

“There is never anyone you can’t love, once you know their story.”

“Hearing is a sense, but listening is a skill.”

“When there are not conversations, there are assumptions.”

#THEBIGTABLE

Human Services Chamber of Franklin County @OneVoiceHSC
Thank you to our co-hosts, @colsfoundation, our distinguished guests, @iamDontavius, @EricaCCrawley, and @sdfavor, and our Public Policy Committee members for a wide-ranging #BigTable discussion about the challenges and opportunities facing nonprofits and the people they serve.

Columbus City Schools
3:41
CCS leaders, staff, parents, community members, and students took their seats at “The Big Table” today to discuss concerns, applaud successes, and share ideas to continue a positive forward momentum for CCS and its students. #OurCCS

ccsoh.us
Columbus City Schools Takes a Seat at The Big Table

Scan to see more on social!

COMMON THEMES

Big Table conversations reflected the diversity of the community, with affordable housing being one of the most common topics.

Other themes included:

Neighborhood-specific discussions

New Americans

Cultivating a culture of kindness

Mental Health

Partnerships & Collaboration

Transportation

Valuing Diversity

Environment

THE COLUMBUS FOUNDATION